On THURSDAY MORNING, August 10, 1811, commencing at 10 o'clock, we will sell, at our Bazaar, a number of HORSES AND MULES, Among which will be found some fine young sound Horses just arrived from Ohio and Pennsylvania, all of which will be sold, and warranted sound as represented by the auctioneer.

Scarcely a day passes that does not bring out some new fact or rumor with regard to Mrs. Wharton's singular mania for administering potions suspected of being poisonous. The latest case is that of Mrs. William E. Alcock, who resides at No. 267 north Eutaw street, two doors frem the house lately occupied by Mrs. Wharton. It seems that Mrs. Alcock had agreed to accompany Mrs. Wharton in her contemplated trip to Europe. Something induced Mr. Alcock to start sooner than at first expected. Mrs. Wharton was very much disappointed, and urged Mrs. A. to induce her husband to wait for her. Mrs. Alcock called upon Mrs. W. the day she was to leave. Mrs. Wharton urged her to stay to dinner. Mrs. A. excused herself for want of of time. About the usual dinner hour, after Mrs. A. had returned home, a servant came from Mrs. Wharton's with a dish of clam soup, which Mrs. Wharton had sent her. Mrs. A. expressed her thanks, and remarked how nice it looked. The servant said: "Mrs. A. I don't think its nice, and I wouldn't eat it if I was you." "Why, said Mrs. A., "I am fond of it, and this looks sonice." The servant again expressed her want of confidence in the soup, saying, "There might be something put in it; somebody might have put something in it; I don't think it's good," &c., &c. Mrs. A., however, took the soup, thinking very strange all the while of the remarks of the servant, and wendering what it could mean Her anxiety finally induced her to try the soup, which she did, but very sparingly. Immediately after partaking of the soup she left the house.

After getting on the steamer she became quite sick, and continued to be strangely affected duabout the soup continually haunting her mem-ory. Her husband and herself had promised

Mrs. Wharton, who was expected to take the next steamer for Europe, to wait for her on their arrival in England, but a telegram from Balti-more simply informed them not to wait, giving

BALTIMORE LOCK HOSPITAL. OFFICE, 7 SOUTH FREDERICK STREET. of Europe and the first in this country, viz: England, France. Philadelphia and elsewhere, can offer the most certain, speedy and effectual remedy in the world for all

world for all

DISEASES OF IMPRUDENCE.

Weakness of the Back or Limbs, Strictures, Affection of the Kidneys or Bladder, Involuntary Discharges, Impotency, General Debility, Nervousness, Dyspepsia, Languor. Lew Spirits, Confusion of Ideas, Palpitation of the Heart, Timidity, Trembling, Dinness of Sight or Giddiness, Disease of the Head, Throat, Nose or Skin, Affections of the Liver, Lungs, Stomach or Bowels—those terrible Disorders arising from Solitary Habits of Youth—secret and solitary practices more fatal to their victims than the songs of the Syrens to the Mariners of Ulysses, blighting their most brilliant hopes or anticipations readering marriage, &c., impossible.

YOUNG MEN

Especially, who have become the Victims of Solitary Vice, that dreadful and destructive habit which annually sweeps to an untimely grave thousands of young men of the most exalted talents and brilliant intellect, who might otherwise have entranced listening Senates with the thunders of eloquence, or waked to ecstasy the living lyre, may call with full

MARRIAGE.

Married persons, or Young Men contemplating marriage, aware of Physical Weakness, (Loss of Procreative Power—Impotency.) Nervous Excitability, Palpitation, Organic Weakness, Nervous Debility, or any other Disqualification, speedily removed.

He who places himself under the care of Dr. J. may religiously confide in his honor as a gentleman, and confidently rely upon his skill as a physician.

ORGANIC WEAKNESS

Immediately Cured, and Full Vigor Restored.
This distressing affection, which renders life miserable and marriage impossible, is the penalty paid by the victims of inaproper indulgences. Young persons are too apt to commit ex esses from not being aware of the dreadful consequences that may ensue. Now, who that understands the subject will pretend to deny that the power of procreation is lost sooner by those falling into improper habits than by the prudent? Besides being deprived of the pleasure of healthy offspring, the most serious and destructive symptoms of both body andmind arise. The system becomes deranged, the phy ical and mental functions weakened, loss of procreative power, nervous irritability, dyspepsia, palpitation of the heart, indigestion, constitutional debility and wasting of the frame cough, consumption, decay and death. cough, consumption, decay and death.

DR. JOHNSTON,

Member of the Royal College of Surgeons, London, Graduate of one of the most eminent Colleges in the United States, and the greater part of whose life has been spent in the hospitals of London, Paris, Philadelphia and elsewhere, has effected some of the most astenishing cures that were ever known; many troubled with ringing in the head and ears when asleep, great nervousness, being alarmed at sudden sounds, bashfulness, with frequent blushing, attended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

tended sometimes with derangement of mind, were cured immediately.

TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. J. addresses all those who have injured themselves by improper indulgence and solitary habits, which rain both body and mind, unfatting for either business, study, society or marriage.

These are some of the sad and melancholy effects produced by the early habits of youth, viz:—Weakness of the Back and Limbs, Pains in the Head, Dimness of Sight, Loss of auscular Power, Palpitation of the Heart, Dyspepsia, Nervous Irritability, Derangement of the Digestive Eunctions, General Debility, Symptoms of Consumption, &c.

MENTALLY.—The fearful effects of the mind are much to be dreaded. Loss of Memory, Confusion of Ideas, Depression of Spirits, Evil Forebodings, Aversion to Society, Self-Distrust, Love of Solitude, Timidity, &c., are some of the evils produced.

Thousands of persons of all ages can now judge what is the cause of their declining health, losing their vigor, becoming weak, pale, nervous and emaciated, having a singular appearance about the eyes, cough and symptoms of Consumption.

YOUNG MEN

Who have injured themselves by a certain practice indulged in when alone, a habit frequently learned from evil companions or at school, the effects of which are nightly felt, even when asleep, and if not cured, renders marriage impossible, and destroys both mind and body, should apply immediately.

What a pity that a young man, the hope of his country, the pride of his parents, should be snatched from all prospects of enjoyment of life by the consequence of deviating from the path of nature, and indulging a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating dulging a certain secret habit. Such persons must, before contemplating

Reflect the sonna mind and body are the most necessary requisites to promote countries happiness. Indeed, without these the journey through life becomes a weary pilgrimage, the prospect hourly darkens to the view, the mind becomes shadowed with despair, and filled with the meiancholy reflection that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

tion that the happiness of another is blighted with our own.

A CERTAIN DISEASE.

When the misguided and imprudent votary of pleasure finds that he has imbibed the seeds of this painful disease, it too often happens that an fil-timed sense of shame or dread of discovery deters him from applying to those who, from education or respectability can alone befriend him. He falls into the hands of ignorant and designing pretenders, who, incapable of curing, filch his pecuniary substance, keep him trifing month after month, or as long as the smallect fee can be obtained, and in despair leave keep him trifling month after month, er as long as the smallect fee can be obtained, and in despair leave him with ruined health to sigh over his galling disappointment; or, by the use of that deadly poison. Mercury, cause the constitutional symptoms of this horrid disease to make their appearance, such as ulcerated sere throat, diseased nose, nocturnal pains in the head and limbs, dissiness of sight, deafness, nodes in the shin-bones and arms, blotches on the head, face and extremities, progressing with frightful rapidity, till at the last the palate of the mouth or the bones of the nose fall in, and the victim of this awful disease becomes a horrid object of commiseration till death puts a period to his dreadful suffering, by sending him to that undiscovered country "from whence no traveler returns."

To such, therefore, Dr. Johnson offers the most certain, speedy, pleasant and effectual remedy in the world.

ENDORSEMENT OF THE PRESS.

The many thousands cured at this establishment within the last twenty years, and the numerous important surgical operations performed by Br.
